The Chairman proposed the Meeting to consider and approve the purchase of land of subsidiary from Chon Buri Sugar Company Limited, a related person. Mr. Paiboon Kujareevanich was invited to report the matter.

Mr. Paiboon reported to the Meeting that Oishi Trading which is subsidiary of Oishi Group Public Company Limited (“the Company”) wants to purchase a plot of land with total area of 182-2-19 Rai located at 283/1 Moo 3 Tumbon Nong Chak, Ampor Banbueng, Chonburi, Title Deed No. 11500, Land No. 22, Survey Page No. 38 from Chonburi Sugar Corporation Ltd., a company which has the common major shareholder with the Company, for 146,038,000 Baht (or 800,000 Baht/ Rai) for the construction of plant building and installation of a new central kitchen system.

The size of transaction equals to 4.73% of net tangible assets (“NTA”) as of December 31, 2012 (NTA as of December 31, 2012 was THB 3,088.05 million) which is higher than 3.00% of NTA accordingly, considered to be a connected. Thus, the Company is required to seek the approval from the shareholders with affirmative votes of not less than three-fourths of the votes attending the meeting and having the right to vote, excluding the votes from the shareholders who have conflict of interest. Also, the Company has appointed JayDee Partners Company Limited (“JayDee Partners”) to be independent financial advisor (‘IFA’) to render opinion regarding the reasonableness of the transaction as well as the fairness of the transaction price and conditions to present to the shareholders of the Company for consideration.

Accordingly, The Board of Director, except interest directors, the Audit Committee and IFA view that the transaction is fair, reasonable and benefits to the Company (Details of the Transaction and the opinions of the Independent Financial Advisor on the acquisition of asset and the connected transaction are submitted together with the Invitation to the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders.)

Ms. Jirayong Anumanrachathon, Independent Financial Advisor from JayDee Partners was invited by the Chairman to provide opinions for the Company's shareholders on this transaction.

Ms. Jirayong reported details of the transaction to the Meeting: total value of the transaction, details of related person, advantages and disadvantages of entering and not entering into the transaction, acquisition of the assets and the summary of the opinion of the Independent Financial Advisor on the acquisition of asset and the connected transaction.

The Chairman has given the opportunity for all shareholders to make any inquiry or any suggestion. There were several inquiries and suggestions from the shareholders as follow:

Mr. Ekkarat Dengamnuay, a shareholder inquired whether the Company has appraised three wells located on the Land and what the Company plans to do with them.

Dr. Pisanu Vichiensanth, a Director informed that the Company will utilize the wells since the first two wells contains raw water which can be supplemented to the pipe water whist the other well can be used for wastewater treatment.

Mr. Sakchai Sakulsrimontri, a shareholder inquired about expenses for Land appraisal, source of fund for buying the Land and details of sell offering and price of Land.

Mr. Paiboon informed the Meeting that expenses for Land appraisal is Baht 20,000 per company. Both independent appraisal companies are approved and endorsed by the Securities and Exchange Commission ('SEC'). The offer on the land was made in accordance with the right of first refusal under the lease agreement. The price is determined by Chon Buri Sugar Industry Co., Ltd. whist the source of fund comes from the revolving fund of Oishi Trading Co., Ltd.

Mr. Apichit Tachawonganantara, a shareholder inquired about the rationale to construct a new central kitchen, benefit and sales forecast in the future.

Mr. Paiboon informed the Meeting that the Company has planned to expand the central kitchen in Nawanakorn Industry during fourth quarter in 2011 to support Food Business expansion in the next 5 years. Due to the great flood 2011, the Company realizes the need to divert and mitigate the risks, so the Company rent the Land urgently to construct a new central kitchen in Chonburi. The return on investment is about six years.

The Chairman inquired Mr. Apichit whether he wanted further explanation. Such shareholder wanted to know further information on the sales forecast. Mr. Matthew was invited to report this matter.

Mr. Matthew informed the Meeting that in 2012, sales revenues from food business was 29% increase from the previous year. This separates into existing outlet 5% and new outlets 24%. In the next five years, the Company aim to open approximately 275 outlets. To prevent and mitigate the risks, the Board of Director agrees to invest for the new central kitchen on the Land.

Ms. Rachanee Dhammajaroen, a shareholder suggested that the Company should negotiate the price and asking to pay for the Land in installments since the price is quite high and so that we can reserve the revolving fund for the construction of new central kitchen.

Mr. Matthew informed the Meeting that the Company has negotiated with Chonburi Sugar Corporation Ltd. for the best benefit for the Company. The benefit of paying in whole amount is subsidiary company can own the Land immediately. Moreover, independent asset appraisers and independent financial advisor has opinion that the transaction is fair, reasonable and benefits to the Company.

There was no further inquiry or suggestion from the shareholders, the Chairman then proposed to the Meeting to consider and approve the purchase of land of Oishi trading Co., Ltd., a subsidiary, from Chon Buri Sugar Company Limited, a related person.

While voting, Mr. Sakchai Sakulrimontri, a shareholder inquired about the amount of conflict of interest shares and have no right to vote in this Agenda.

The Chairman informed that as the Secretary of the Company has informed the voting procedure to everyone earlier. In counting vote, the vote arising from shares of interested person shall be excluded. For transparency, Mr.Paiboon was asked to inform the amount of shares eligible to vote in this Agenda.

As for the goal of the Company, the Company not only set its goal to maintain its status as a leader domestically but it wishes to be the leader of green tea business in Asian region. Accordingly, he asked the shareholders to put their trust and confidence in the Company's business plan.

Mr. Sahasphol Eiemthong, a shareholder inquired about the plan in expanding business overseas especially in Asia region, e.g. Laos, where the economy has grown dramatically.

Mr. Matthew informed that, at present, the Company has expanded its beverage business internationally not only in ASEAN regions but it is also doing well in several regions such as Russia. As for the food business, the Company also has plan to expand its business to overseas market but right now the Company is studying the possibility, marketing strategy and trying to come up with the most appropriate action that will benefit the Company the most.

The Shareholder then further inquired about planning and the company's marketing campaign and sale promotion.

Mr. Matthew informed that the Company has planned its marketing campaign and sale promotion for the upcoming year. Its marketing strategy is to have product innovation, particularly, new product that will differentiate the Company from its competitors and answer the need of consumer precisely in order to get them to buy the Company's products. As for the sale promotion, it is very common for any business that the sale promotion will be considered, adapted or even changed to fit circumstances at the time. The most important thing is, however, to have marketing strategy that is clear and appropriate.

Mr. Somkid Wongpakorn, a shareholder inquired about business direction and product innovation in the next five years and the earning before tax of the Company.

Mr. Matthew informed that the Company has presented its direction, marketing strategy and vision for the next five year through an event of the Stock Exchange of Thailand called ‘Opportunity Day’ and though meetings with investors in the past year which can be summarized as follows:

The Company has set goals to have 25% growth of sales yearly in which prior to the great flood, the growth went very well and in line with the Company’s plan. In order to achieve such goal. The Company has business expansion plan that should attribute to such growth including the construction of new central kitchen to serve the increase of restaurants branches and the expansion of beverage production line to be able to produce enough products to respond consumers’ need.

The earning before tax of the Company is 10 per cent in average. The beverage business has higher gross profit than the food business. Accordingly, in order to increase such number, the Company must adjust and strategize to have higher gross profit from food business. The Company has strategy to increase restaurant branches especially those brands with good gross profit. The result is shown in the previous year where the earning before tax of food business increased. As for product innovation, the Company continuously markets new products realizing that innovation is vital to the business in order to attract customers. However, he would like to elaborate more on this on another occasions to prevent the Company from losing any business advantages. Mr. Mathew then gave his gratitude to the shareholders for their interest in the Company’s business.

There were no other recommendation or suggestion from the Shareholders. The Chairman expressed his thanks to shareholders or proxy holders for their time to attend the Meeting and for their useful opinions and recommendations and then declared the Meeting adjourned.

The Meeting adjourned at 3.45 p.m.
